EXECUTIVE SUMMARY & PROPERTY PROFILE

Mont Kiara Damai Resort Condominium is a freehold luxury high-rise at Jalan Kiara 2 — KL's premier expat enclave. Developed by Sunrise Berhad and completed in 2004, the 40-storey, 230-unit tower offers unusually large units (2,272–11,000 sq ft) at just 6 units per floor, giving it a boutique density rare in the corridor.

The property scores 68/100 (Grade B — Watch / Selective Buy). Its strongest dimensions are Neighborhood Quality (85/100) and Comparable Value (71/100), underpinned by the best international school cluster in KL and a robust Japanese/Korean/European expat tenant pool. The drag: thin net yields (1.6–2.9%) and negative leveraged cash flow across all scenarios. This is a capital-appreciation play, not a yield investment.

Key Findings

- Low end of asking (RM 707 psf) represents genuine value — 25% below luxury comp benchmark (RM 941 psf weighted avg)
- Negative leveraged cash flow across all scenarios; breakeven rent ~RM 10,600/month vs market RM 7,000–9,000
- Exceptional neighborhood: KL's densest international school cluster, 50%+ expat residents, SPRINT Expressway km0
- No MRT — structural weakness; 37 new launch pipeline adds rental competition for older stock
- Best strategy: Negotiate to RM 2.0–2.2M, renovate (RM 150–170k), hold 7–10 years RPGT-free

Connectivity & Growth	15/20	SPRINT km0; KLCC 15–20 min; no MRT; 37 new launches = supply pressure
TOTAL	85/100

Top 3 Strengths

- ✓ Expat ecosystem density — 50%+ foreign residents; self-reinforcing corporate/embassy demand
- ✓ International school cluster — GIS + MKIS + French School; hard-floors rental demand
- ✓ Highway superconnectivity — SPRINT km0; KLCC in 15–20 min by car

Top 3 Concerns

- No MRT/LRT — car-dependent; limits future buyer/tenant pool (younger demographic)
- Condo supply overhang — 37+ new launches; Damai competes as 2004-vintage stock
- Opportunistic snatch theft on Jalan Kiara/Jalan Solaris commercial strips

RISK ASSESSMENT & RECOMMENDATION

Risk Matrix

#	Risk	Severity	Likelihood	Mitigation
1	Entry price above median (RM 893 vs RM 677)	High	High	Negotiate to RM 750–800 psf; walk at >RM 900 for standard units
2	Negative leveraged cash flow (–RM 3k–5.5k/month)	High	Certain	Only proceed if cash-rich; or buy smaller/cheaper unit
3	Building age (2004) — rising CapEx/maintenance	Medium	Medium	Budget RM 170k reno; inspect M&E systems pre-purchase
4	Supply overhang (37 new launches)	Medium	High	Renovate + furnish; use expat relocation channels
5	No MRT — car dependent	Low	Certain	Currently not a dealbreaker for target expat tenant
6	MYR appreciation reducing China buyer interest	Medium	Medium	Broad expat base (JP/KR/EU) less MYR-sensitive
7	New foreign stamp duty (8%)	Low	Certain	Affects resale to foreigners; freehold partially mitigates

SIGNAL: WATCH / SELECTIVE BUY

Proceed IF all of these are true:

- ✓ Entry price negotiated to RM 750–850 psf (RM 2.1M–2.4M for ~2,800 sqft)
- ✓ You can carry RM 2,000–4,000/month negative cash flow for 5–7 years without financial strain
- ✓ Plan to renovate (RM 150–170k budget) for full expat-grade rental potential
- ✓ Holding horizon is 7–10 years minimum (RPGT-free after Year 5 for citizens)

Pass IF:

- ✗ Seller won't move below RM 900 psf on a standard unit
- ✗ You need positive monthly cash flow from Day 1
- ✗ Your investment horizon is under 5 years
- ✗ You're considering this as a flip (net loss under any scenario)

Suggested Offer Price: RM 2.0M–2.2M (RM 714–786 psf for a standard ~2,800 sqft unit)

This range sits between the subject's own historical median (RM 677 psf) and the suburb-wide median (RM 808 psf). At this entry, net yield improves to ~2.4–2.7% and monthly shortfall drops to ~RM 2,500–3,500.

Key Contingencies:

- Full building inspection — structural + M&E; systems (lift, plumbing, electrical)
- Sinking fund balance check — confirm no underfunded reserves or outstanding special levies
- Confirm no outstanding maintenance arrears on the specific unit
- Engage a licensed valuer for formal valuation before committing

Next Steps:

- Visit the unit — check floor level, view, and renovation scope in person
- Get 3 rental agent opinions on realistic effective rent (not just advertised)
- Request management company sinking fund and account statements
- Negotiate to RM 2.0M–2.2M — or walk

→ If proceeding: appoint contractor to scope reno cost before signing SPA
