

BUSINESS STRATEGY, ON ONE PAGE

Verdict: Your deal-making is strong and the trajectory is real (~3x last year's pace). But the business is a one-person deal shop, not yet a machine. What caps RM500k is not skill, it is leverage (still solo) and lead supply (thin top-of-funnel).

REALIZED (YTD)	SIGNED / ADVANCED	PROJECTED IF CLOSED
RM 24,475	+ RM 143,325	~ RM 167,800

WHAT'S WORKING

- Deal execution — closing hard, high-value deals (Umesh RM4.69m, Datuk RM5.6m land, Ingo).
- Trust & brand — patient, client-first; you win anxious buyers and walk from bad-trust deals.
- Integrity — returned Patrick's fee, declined to fabricate, flagged tax risk. Protects licence & referrals.
- Co-broke network — Amanda, Ben, Nick Lu, Caydence, Nigel actively producing deals.

THE REAL RISKS

- You are the bottleneck — everything runs through you; the VA hire you flagged keeps being deferred.
- Pipeline concentration — most GCI in 3-4 big deals stuck in loan/consent limbo; some may slip to 2027.
- Top-of-funnel dormant — relationship-bank & listing farm parked; little new lead/listing supply.
- Over-servicing single deals — while deep in one buyer, other leads go cold (9 overdue today).

The honest number: RM500k realized this year is not happening (realized RM24k; everything-closes ~RM168k). Reframe the goal: ~RM150-200k realized + a built team + a full pipeline into 2027. You are building the machine, not sprinting to 500k.

THE 3 MOVES THAT MATTER MOST

1	Hire the VA now — the single unlock. Off your plate: CRM upkeep, follow-up scheduling, doc prep. Kit is ready (references/hiring/VA-hire-kit.md); you have the runway. Stop deferring.
2	Turn the top-of-funnel back on. Fire relationship-bank Wave 1 (56 warm done-deals) + 30 min/day listing farm in core buildings. Cheapest leads you have, currently ignored.
3	Protect against the post-close cliff. Ring-fence time for new production even while closing the big deals, so Q4/Q1 does not go quiet when the pipeline completes.

Bottom line: you can close. The next level is leverage (a hire) and supply (consistent leads/listings), so your closing skill has more to work on. Do those two and RM500k becomes a next-year conversation.
